

Cox Pinnacle, Brunswick

Cox Pinnacle is a wooded trail system that summits Brunswick's highest point, a little ledge (with no views) 350 feet above sea level. There is a lovely, well-made bridge at the start. You can also access the trail from Durham Road, but it's best to park at the well-maintained trail head on Hacker Road.

Directions: The trailhead is located on Hacker Road, 3/10 mile east of Durham Road.
